

supplication (du'a) for seeking provision and relief from debt, traditionally said before sleeping:

“O Allah, Lord of the seven heavens and Lord of the earth, Lord of the Great Throne, our Lord and the Lord of everything, Splitter of the grain and the date stone, Revealer of the Torah, the Gospel, and the Criterion (Qur'an), I seek refuge in You from the evil of everything You have control over. O Allah, You are the First—there is nothing before You. And You are the Last—there is nothing after You. And You are the Most High—there is nothing above You. And You are the Most Near—there is nothing closer than You. Settle our debt for us and enrich us so that we are free from poverty.”

This is a powerful and authentic supplication, recorded in Sahih Muslim, and often recited with the intention of seeking relief from financial stress and blessings in sustenance.
